

UPL CORPORATION LTD APPOINTS ANDREW MARKWICK AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

London, UK, April 1, 2023 – UPL Corporation Ltd, a global provider of sustainable agricultural solutions, has announced the appointment of Andrew Markwick as Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Andrew has over 20 years of finance and accounting experience across global organizations and joins UPL from IQVIA, where he most recently served as CFO of the global R&D Solutions business unit, a contract research organization with approximately $8 billion of annual revenue. Previously at IQVIA, Andrew led the investor relations function and served as corporate treasurer. He joined UPL in January 2023 and will lead all finance functions for UPL Corporation Ltd.

Mike Frank, Chief Executive Officer, UPL Corporation Ltd, said: “I am excited to welcome Andrew to UPL. Andrew comes with a track record of focused execution to drive business growth and deliver superior shareholder returns. I look forward to partnering with him as we position UPL Corporation Ltd for its next phase of growth, leveraging our OpenAg platform to bring sustainable solutions to growers worldwide.”

Andrew Markwick, Chief Financial Officer, UPL Corporation Ltd, said: “It gives me great pleasure to join UPL at this exciting time. I am eager to work with the UPL team to expand our crop protection business with a grower-focused mindset and a commitment to leveraging new opportunities in sustainable agriculture.”

Andrew earned his MBA from the University of Birmingham and is a Chartered Global Management Accountant. Andrew is based in UPL’s London offices.
